

TELECOMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY OF FIJI

03 September 2019

South Korea

Type Approval for

This is to acknowledge receipt of your application regarding above mentioned subject. We have completed our assessment of the aforementioned product and have concluded to grant a Type Approval for importation and use of this type of equipments in Fiji provided that all the sighted technical specifications of the product that you have provided are not amended or altered and that the product continues to be manufactured in accordance with those specifications.

This approval does not guarantee optimum performance of the product when interconnected to Fiji's network of any provider. You remain liable to any damage caused by it. The use of the product must not create nor impose harmful interferences to the existing services, and this product must have and depict CE, FCC and Australia approval prior to distribution in Fiji.

In this regard, we have assigned the following type approval number to this product:

For queries if any, do not hesitate to contact the undersigned,

Tevita Navila
for

Telecommunications Authority of Fiji